The voice of hospital employers in Europe

HOSPEEM represents national hospital employers' organisations and promotes their interests on workforce and industrial relations issues. HOSPEEM is the privileged link between hospital and healthcare employers, the European Union, and other important stakeholders. HOSPEEM relays the views of our sector to the EU institutions to ensure that policymakers are well informed of the impact of potential new policies on these crucial social matters. We commit to expressing the interests our members have to help maintain a strong and sustainable healthcare system in Europe.

Our members benefit from our network of influential stakeholders at EU level, and a structured platform to exchange information and experiences to promote our main objective: the optimal functioning of the hospital and healthcare sector.

Our commitments

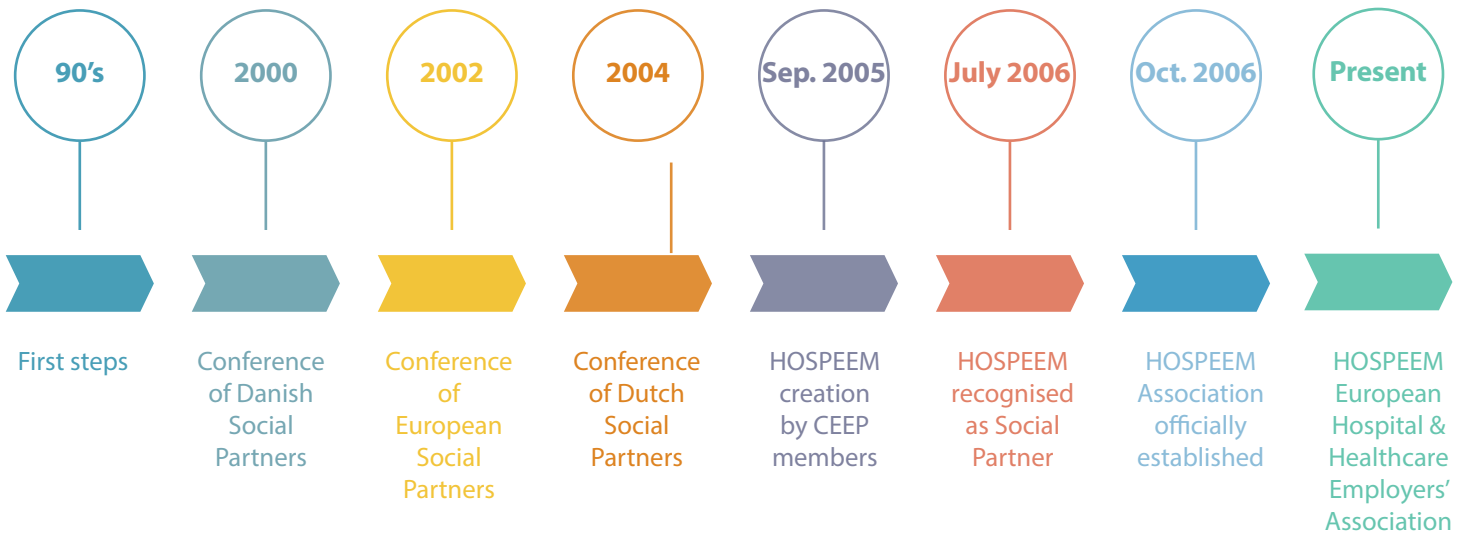

Since the late 1990s, employers and trade unions have worked closely to create Social Dialogue in the European hospital sector. One important step was the establishment of the European Hospital and Healthcare Employers' Association (HOSPEEM) in September 2005. HOSPEEM was founded by the members of the European Centre of Employers and Enterprises providing Public Services (CEEP), who had identified a need for a distinct voice on health workforce issues at European level. One year later, in July 2006, HOSPEEM was officially recognised as a Social Partner in the Hospital Sector Social Dialogue by the European Commission.

Let's build the future of
HOSPITAL CARE

A key player in the European Social Dialogue for ten years

HOSPEEM is a key player in the European Sectoral Social Dialogue Committee for the Hospital Sector (SSDC HS) that was set up on 20 September 2006, together with the European Federation of Public Service Unions (EPSU), our trade union counterpart. As HOSPEEM is a recognised Social Partner, the European Commission, in particular the Directorate General for Employment, Social Affairs and Inclusion, must consult us on any draft proposal concerning social policies in the hospital and healthcare sector¹. This allows the European policymakers to be properly informed before any decision is made. On the other hand, HOSPEEM members benefit from an early involvement in the draft proposals of the European Commission and have a direct voice on healthcare and workforce-related issues at European level.

A growing expertise

Social dialogue has always been our core competence. But in just ten years, HOSPEEM has widely broadened its scope of activities. HOSPEEM is increasingly being recognised as an important source of expertise and information on healthcare and workforce-related issues in the European arena.

HOSPEEM closely co-operates with a wide range of EU stakeholders: European institutions and agencies, relevant European and international organisations and platforms as well as researchers. Through these permanent contacts, we promote the interests and views of our members on a daily basis.
